Per

MOTION TO PROCEED AS PER YOUR NOVEMBER 20, 2001 ORDER

Plaintiff is in receipt of the US Attorney's MOTION TO EXTEND THE CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER, dated March 15, 2002. US Attorney requests an extension of forty-five (45) days for all deadlines contained in your November 20, 2001 Case Management Order.

Plaintiff opposes this motion for the following:

- 1) Plaintiff met the Discovery deadline, and forwarded to the Defendant all of the information the Defendant requested well within the prescribed time.
- 2) Plaintiff met all of his obligations and requirements even though Plaintiff is acting pro se while working a job that requires him to work 70 to 80 hours a week.
- 3) Defendant waited until the actual date of the Discovery deadline March 15, 2002 to request the extension.
- 4) Defendant has not met the Discovery request of the Plaintiff, even though the deadline has since passed.

Respectfully submitted,

Oliver Stevenson Jr.
